United States Magistrate Judge

Re: United States v. Keith Raniere, et al.
Criminal Docket No. 18-204 (S-1) (NGG) (VMS)

Dear Judge Scanlon:

The Court initially set today's status conference as a control date to address, if necessary, issues that were raised by certain defendants at the end of last Thursday's status conference. Since that conference the parties have been working productively to address and resolve those issues. The parties jointly agree that in light of the progress that has been made, a conference today is not necessary unless there are other issues the Court wishes to address.

Respectfully submitted,

RICHARD P. DONOGHUE
United States Attorney
